

You'll quickly discover Motorlogix isn't like most brokers, because we believe 'knowing our stuff' is an essential part of offering an unrivalled service.

We take the time to make sure we know as much as possible about the products our customers want, whether it's understanding latest lead times, model/price changes or just ensuring we can offer impartial advice on comparative vehicles.

Stock Vehicles

Given the current lengthy lead times for many popular brands we're currently focusing on making as many stock vehicles available to our customers. We're regularly supplied stock lists by our Dealer partners – so why not email us or call us to discuss your requirements.

More brands... more ways to help you source your new car

We're always adding to our portfolio of manufacturers giving our clients an even bigger choice of offers on new vehicles. But if you don't find what you're looking for on our website, then by all means give us a call – with over 10 years vehicle sourcing experience we're well placed to help.

Trusted partner to leading businesses & insurance companies

Motorlogix works with a growing number of Blue Chip and established UK companies providing vehicles both through company car and opt-out schemes. We also supply a number of leading insurers, providing a comprehensive vehicle procurement service and the competitive supply of write-off replacements.

If you want help sourcing vehicles for your business, then look no further... call us today!
